Dear Dr. Billings:

As a follow up to our telephone conversation this morning, you will find several copies of your orders enclosed, which you may very well need when visiting [redacted]

Dick is planning to leave with Kelly on 16 May, which should get him there the morning of the 17th. I am not certain at present exactly when he is planning to go to the Base, and he, himself, may not be sure until his arrival [redacted]. He is planning to stay at [redacted] and may be contacted either there or through [redacted] secretary, [redacted] with whom he will be in contact.

Should you wish to go to the Base prior to Dick's arrival, you may get in touch with them by telephoning [redacted]. Upon reaching his office, you should ask for the number of the Administrative Officer of the [redacted]. As the unit is recently established, we do not yet have this number but might before your departure Thursday, if you would care to call me.

I draw your attention to the classification of this letter.

I hope you will have a good trip over and will probably see you, as the chances are in favor of my coming over with Dick.

Sincerely yours,

TONY
